DAY 01

Sunday 26th October

We ride down the west and do a loop of the coast. We pass the most southern point of the island riding up the spectacular east coast with numerous photo ops. We finish the day looping back to the west coast where we spend the night at Bai Sha beach. This is now more commonly known as the "Life of Pi" beach from its feature in the movie.

DAY 02

Monday 27th October

From our hotel on the west coast we embark on our third crossing of the island. After 20km we get on the scenic No. 199, one of the highlights of the trip. We'll pass through several aborigine villages, the Mudan Reservoir and enjoy country roads with little traffic. Your guide will explain some of the history and symbolism of aborigine culture. After a picnic lunch we descend down to the east coast. We climb over a 1,000m throughout the day but be comforted in knowing that we spend the evening at a hot springs hotel

DAY 03

Tuesday 28th October

We start the day continuing up the east coast until lunch time. In the afternoon we ascend the coastal mountains to access the Rift Valley - the bread basket of Taiwan - famous for its rice paddies and quiet country roads. We have another night at a hot springs resort, one of the 5 hot springs established during the Japanese colonial period from 1895 - 1945
